EXPEDITED PERMISSION FOR INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL

Edward DeJesus has requested permission to travel to the Dominican Republic to accompany his wife to bring the body of her deceased brother home for funeral services and burial. His brother-in-law passed away suddenly this morning. He is contemplating leaving Monday, October 11, 2010 and returning two days later.

The undersigned has been supervising Mr. DeJesus since on or about November 2008. Mr. DeJesus resides with his paramour in Manhattan and has been gainfully employed as a warehouse supervisor at ABCO door industries located in the Bronx. He reports as directed, submits all required documents, has not been the subject of any criminal inquiries and can be located either at home or at his place of employment.

We have no objection to the proposed emergency travel request.

We are therefore requesting that Your Honor indicate on the checklist as viewed on the next page, the course of action to be taken.

Respectfully submitted,

Rosiani L. Schuricht
 U.S. Probation Officer
